AERIE

Brentwood Academy

Brentwood, Tennessee

Volume II

To everything there is a season
And a time to every purpose under Heaven.

A time to be born, and a time to die . . .

A time to breakdown, and a time to build up...

A time to kill and a time to heal...

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; A time to mourn and a time to dance...

A time to get, and a time to lose; A time to keep and a time to cast away . . .

A time to rend, and a time to sew:

A time to keep silence and a time to speak...

A time of love, and a time of hate...

A time of war, and a time of peace.

Brentwood Academy's

"Man for All Seasons"

"... is a man of angel's wit and singular learning; I know not his fellow. For where is the man of that gentleness, lowliness and affability? And as time requireth, a man of marvelous mirth and pastimes; and sometimes of as sad a gravity; a man for all seasons."

Robert Whittinton

This year's AERIE is dedicated to Dr. Beauchamp. What better man for all seasons!

Dr. Beauchamp brings dignity, wisdom, and understanding to our newly hallowed halls at Brentwood. His concern for people, love of learning, and joie de vivre is radiated to his students and fellow faculty members. He is an irreplaceable part of the Academy, and we are proud to dedicate this book to such a man for all time!

Brentwood had its ups and downs early in the season but as the defense strengthened the offense did for us also. In several games the Eagles put it all together and worked truly as a single unit. These are signs of many great seasons to come. Freshmen and Sophmores played against people older and more experienced than they were, which means that some day, we are sure of having a championship team.

Paggett booms another one.

Eagles get "fired up" before the game with Mt. Pleasant.

Ricky Smith fights his way into the Mt. Pleasant backfield.

Carl Vaughn returns a kick-off for good yardage.

Hill rips up a Hohenwald ball carrier.

Coach Flatt offers encouragement from the sidelines.
